Sanitation and Safety in the Beauty Industry

Teacher – Lois Bugg Shadrick
Email –loisedutopia@gmail.com
Class website –Nailtech101.coursesite.com

A. COURSE DESCRIPTION

As licensed Nail Technicians we are charged with protecting the health and safety of consumer, our clients. This course will remind you of the industry's best practices to safe guard the public health, protect practitioners from physical injury, and maintain the environment where services are provided to the public in accordance with governing regulations. This material is being presented as a continuing education workshop many practitioner need to renew their license.

B. METHOD OF INSTRUCTION

I. This course will include lectures, group discussions via online discussion boards, quizzes and hands-on activities.
II. There will be a quiz at the end of each module. There will be a final group project with group and individual grades. There will also be small activities to help learners demonstrate mastery of course material.

C. COURSE OBJECTIVES

I. Explain Contamination Control and the reasons for Universal Sanitation
II. Understand and Summarize Industry Best Practices in Sanitation Procedures III. Create job aids/checklist for
  i. station sanitation
  ii. practitioner sanitation
  iii. salon sanitation
  iv. client safety
IV. Evaluate a salon's degree of compliance with government regulations in the area of safety and sanitation.

D. COURSE TOPICS/UNITS AND DATES

I. Module 1 Contamination Control and Universal Sanitation
II. Module 2 Application of Disinfection Procedures in Salon
III. Module 3 Application of Safety Procedures in Salon

E. TEXTBOOK(S) AND REQUIRED TOOLS OR SUPPLIES

Textbook (recommended): Milady's Standard Nail Technology (7th Edition) by Milady (2014, Paperback) or
By Salon Fundamentals Salon Fundamentals Esthetics Student Study Guide (2007, Paperback)

Supplies and/or tools:

       Nail technology equipment, implements and supplies necessary to perform Spa manicures and pedicures.

F. GRADING PLAN

Final grades will be determined as follows:

Points vary by	Earned	Percentage Grade
assignment	90 to 100%	A
and will be outlined in	80 to 89%	B
the Rubric for each	70 to 79%	C
assignment.	60 to 69%	D
	Less than 59% or below	F

There will be opportunities throughout the course to gain extra credit points.

Late Work and Penalties

There will be a 1 week grace period with an automatic 10% deduction for all late assignments. Please note that projects turned in after the one week grace period will have an automatic 20% deduction.

Due to the nature of the Discussion Board, postings must be on time to receive points. Your first post is due by Thursday and your reply posts will be due by midnight every Sunday. You will not be given any points for late discussion board replies.

G. Other Learning Consideration:

Plagiarism: Everyone is expected to do their own work. All submitted work must be original thoughts with the aid of appropriate citations.

Accessibility, Accommodations and Learning Aids

This course was designed using the Universal Design Principles of Learning. This will help all students access and interact with the information regardless of their learning style or needs. If your assistive technology is having problems accessing this course, please notify the instructor so that appropriate accommodations can be arranged.